Hands down one of the most unique properties ever to come on the market at Lake Toxaway. This picturesque, private property has magnificent views of the golf course, surrounding mountains and a rambling native trout stream running through it. The attention to detail is unsurpassed on both the exterior and interior of this home with natural elements of stone and rustic wood throughout. This unique home boasts not only an open floor plan inside with accessibility to the outdoors by merely sliding open a few doors, but a thoughtful layout of its rooms and their functionality in regard to the flow of daily simplistic living. A breathtaking mountain retreat not to be missed!
